THE MONTHLY RECAP

by Samantha Hampton Owner of Creative Community Promotions

There are so many exciting updates I want to share with you all. Where should I start? My team and I have just finished branding the whole company. It was important to me that I took the time to define my brand and what it stands for. I have worked hard to identify the core values of my company and am looking forward to sharing more in the upcoming weeks with the community. So keep an eye out as we slowly transition into our new brand.

In November, we will be launching our second annual Community Choice Nomination awards. Interlake community members will have one month to submit a 100 word write up and photo of an individual, business, or organization that is going above and beyond to display kind acts of service and community leadership. So stay tuned for more information!

BIG ANNOUNCEMENT, we are just 6 weeks away from launching our brand new platform with ALL of the Interlake communities. I have been working on this for almost a year! Our newest platform will be announced in a couple of weeks and we don't want to ruin the surprise! However, I can say that this new platform is more than I ever dreamed of and it will change the way the Interlake Region communicates.

Until next month,
Stay Safe, & be kind to one another.

ZIPLINING!

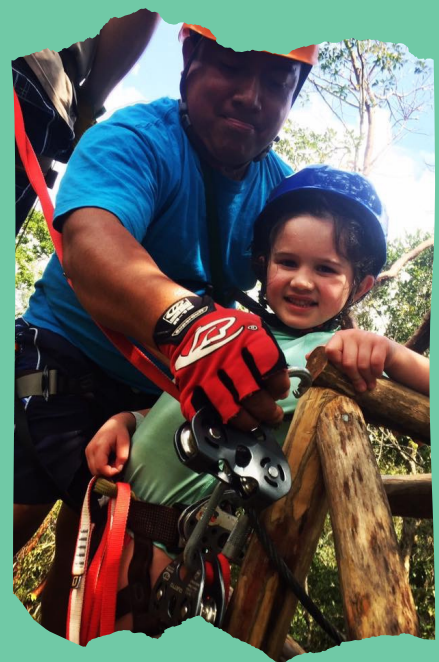

*by Sophia McPherson
8 years old*

Hello, my name is Sophia and I love to travel. I woke up and got on the plane. It took my family 4 hours to get to Mexico. We went Ziplining, I had a wonderful time.

Have you ever gone Ziplining? It is so much fun, you should try it someday. I was hooked up to a harness and was attached to the Zipline cable, I went so fast. There were four different heights of Ziplines. It felt so cool with the wind blowing in my face, it felt like I was flying. My Step-Dad went upside down on the Zipline!

When we were done Ziplining, we went back to our house in Playa Del Carmen. I hope to go back someday. I'm happy to share my Mexico trip with you.

I wonder where I will go next...?

wheat & wildflower

by Janine Duguid

In September 2020, Janine Duguid’s employer centralized her long-term position in the agriculture industry to Ontario. To remain flexible for her family during COVID-times, she has decided to act on her dream to be an entrepreneur and turn her long-term sewing hobby into a business opportunity. Wheat and Wildflower Handmade was born.

Drawing inspiration from nature, Wheat and Wildflower Handmade offers high-quality handmade clothing made from natural fibers. All products are proudly handmade with love and care in a home-based studio located near Arnes.

The focus is on “capsule-style” clothing with garments that wear beautifully individually or can be effortlessly combined for multiple outfits that work for the office or casual wear and anything in between. Neutral staple pieces combine with everyday layering garments that are rich in color and texture

In contrast to fast-fashion clothing that is available at so many big stores, our products will appeal to conscious consumers who wish to support local, handmade businesses and want to add quality, lasting garments to their wardrobes.

A special holiday gift stocking is planned for November and will include items for everyone on your gift list, including the little family members. Follow us on Facebook or Instagram or sign up for our email newsletter on our website to learn more.

For the holiday season shopping, I’d be honored if you chose to support local and share the love of Wheat and Wildflower Handmade garments:

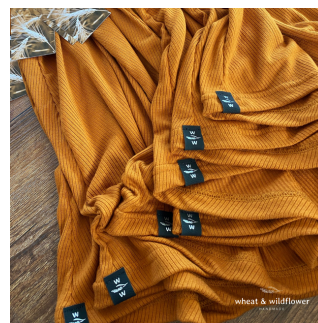

- Gift cards are always available on our website.
- Contact me and I would be pleased to keep a registry for you including your wish-list and size and your family can shop with me to have your wishes fulfilled.
- Local delivery or pick-up arrangements can be made.
- Canada-wide shipping with the option for personalized gift wrapping is available to ship directly to your loved ones.

BODY BUILDING!

by Richard Bredsteen

As you graduate
From university
You expand your horizons,
The View
In a diverse culture
You learn to celebrate
a spacious awareness,
A temple in many forms,
Body building to strengthen
Your capacity to feel, understand Defend yourself
and nourish others,
Become empowered and trust the process
of collaboration to create community, extended family/business
and a sustainable new world order, 2020 will shake us by the roots
and in the fall
winds howl, coyotes too,
creative spirits ignite the world to celebrate a new racial justice, democratic ideals/responsibility,
and body building...
Your practice is a meditation
Thoughts pass through, let them go,
Realize no mind,
A presence...Don't worry, be happy!
Practice, practice, practice
A life long learning exercise
To be a decent, fair minded
And trustful human being...The struggle remains,
The game is on,
The kids are overwhelming
At times, Take a break, call for help,
Listen to elders
And discriminate wisely
The news of the day.
Information age wanes
In the wake of climate change
And pandemic blues,
conscious efforts affirm
souls in transition.
May it be so...
May your self
be true,
and fulfill your destiny,
Bear witness and take care of your family, community...
Remember moments of discovery,
And how to proceed,
To love,
To create, and make a difference in the world

TC SOLUTIONS

by Tippy Can Solutions

Tippy Can Solutions is an IT Support and Solutions provider that believes in providing top notch service no matter where you live.

Started in Teulon, Manitoba by Cory Dandeneau, Tippy Can Solutions was founded out of a growing frustration with how IT support is generally handled. The biggest problems I find with support is how difficult it can become if the problem does not have a trivial solution. Tier 1 support is quite frankly, subpar. "So turning it on and off didn't do anything? I guess we'll have to escalate this. We will get back to you as soon as possible!". This just does not feel like an appropriate response to me. You've called for support because you need to get back to your task at hand.

While not every problem can be solved immediately, Tippy Can Solutions is committed to doing everything we can to get you back up and running. With nearly a decade of diversified IT experience from Help Desk Technician, System Administrator, Network Automation Manager and several roles between, Tippy Can has not only the passion, but also the skillset to provide you with the best possible support for all your technical needs.

Business systems support, data analytics and end user support are just a few of the things we can do for you! Named after a horse and located in rural Manitoba, Tippy Can Solutions isn't your usual IT company, but the way we figure, that's probably a good thing!
